COUNTDOWN TO FUN!

Florida's Space Coast is an out-of-this-world combination of sun, sea and space just 35 miles east of Orlando. From Titusville and Cocoa Beach to Melbourne and Palm Bay, discover adventures all along this thrilling stretch of the Atlantic coast.

Cape Canaveral

TOP 10 THINGS TO DO ON THE SPACE COAST

- 10 Go to town: Stroll, shop and dine in charming downtowns including Downtown Melbourne and the Eau Gallie Arts District as well as historic riverfront Cocoa Village.
- 9 Get cultured: Discover the Space Coast's proud place in the history of space exploration, as well as museums dedicated to local history, civil rights and the military.
- 8 Ship out: Board a cruise ship at Port Canaveral, the second-busiest cruising port in the world, and embark on an ocean voyage.
- 7 Get back to nature: Join a turtle walk, take a bioluminescent kayak tour or follow the Great Florida Birding and Wildlife Trail in search of shorebirds, manatees and dolphins.
- 6 Be a good sport: Play a round of golf, challenge the world's best in a surfing contest or explore the area on foot during a 5K or half marathon.
- 5 Hit the beach: Enjoy a sunrise walk, play in the waves or lounge on the sand along 72 miles of sunny coastline.
- 4 Drop a line: The Space Coast is a fishing paradise – try your luck anywhere from the Atlantic Ocean to the Indian River Lagoon and freshwater lakes.
- 3 Be adventurous: Hop aboard an airboat to see gators, see the Space Coast from a helicopter tour and paddle by giraffes, rhinos and lemurs at the Brevard Zoo.
- 2 Hang 10: Cocoa Beach is famous among surfing legends – take a lesson or bring your board and tackle the waves.
- 1 Blast off! Witness history in the making at the Kennedy Space Center at Cape Canaveral, now with more rocket launches than ever before.

WELCOME TO THE SUNSHINE STATE

Dear Florida Traveler:

On behalf of every Floridian, it is my pleasure to invite you to the Sunshine State.

As Governor and a lifelong resident, I am proud to call the great state of Florida my home. Situated between the Atlantic Ocean and Gulf of Mexico, directly south of Georgia, and neighboring the Caribbean, Florida is an incredibly diverse state with destinations and attractions unlike anywhere else.

When people think of a Florida vacation, they think of our beautiful year-round weather and outdoor experiences. From pristine beaches, to award-winning state parks, to exotic flora and fauna, to world-class golfing and water sports, Florida's great outdoors offer an endless amount of safe vacation opportunities that can be enjoyed by the entire family. Whether you are playing a round of golf, fishing off of our coasts, hiking in our parks or lounging on a sandy beach, Florida has something for everyone.

As THE vacation state, we pride ourselves on our exceptional hospitality. No matter where your Florida adventure takes you, you will be welcomed with the same warmth and friendliness that continue to position the Sunshine State as one of the top vacation destinations in the world.

Whether you're a first-time or long-time visitor, the resources and tips outlined in this guide will help you plan your perfect Florida getaway. I am confident that the memories and connections you make here will inspire many returns for years to come.

Sincerely,

Ron DeSantis
Florida Governor

Welcome!

On behalf of Florida's tourism industry, I would like to thank you for visiting the Sunshine State.

As a sixth-generation Floridian and president and CEO of VISIT FLORIDA, I know the memories you'll make here will last a lifetime. No matter where in the state your travel plans take you, you'll find that each area has its own distinct personality. From hiking under a canopy of live oaks in Tallahassee to sampling authentic Caribbean cuisine in Miami and fishing for tarpon in the Gulf, Florida is home to infinite possibilities that can't be found anywhere else.

As the state's official tourism marketing corporation, VISIT FLORIDA has published this guide to help you design your perfect Florida vacation. Whether you're planning a family trip, romantic getaway, camping excursion, adrenaline-pumping adventure, or relaxing week at the beach, VISIT FLORIDA's vacation guide is your definitive source of Florida inspiration and information.

Our natural wonders and outdoor experiences make the Sunshine State truly shine – and, best of all, they can be enjoyed year-round. With over 1,300 miles of coastline, 320 freshwater springs, 175 state parks, and 26,000 square miles of forest, Florida boasts abundant outdoor vacation opportunities from the Gulf to the Atlantic.

In addition to perusing this vacation guide, I urge you to visit VISITFLORIDA.com and follow us on social media at @VISITFLORIDA for more travel-planning inspiration. When you get here, be sure to tag #LoveFL and pass your love of Florida along to future Sunshine State visitors.

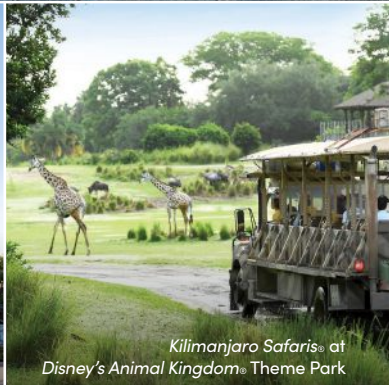

Sunny regards,

Dana D. Young

RR 9

EMERALD COAST

Famous for the jewel-toned hues of its crystal-clear water and its white-sand beaches, this section of Northwest Florida has fun waterparks, beachfront restaurants, and lots of amenities in Destin, Fort Walton Beach, and Okaloosa Island.

FORGOTTEN COAST

This least well-known section of Florida's coast still has plenty to do. Stay in an antique-filled inn, discover Apalachicola's rich maritime history, explore the unspoiled beaches of St. George Island, and dine on fresh Gulf seafood.

NATURE COAST

The abundance and variety of nature experiences here is amazing. Crystal River is the only place where you can swim with gentle manatees. In summer, snorkeling for scallops near Steinhatchee yields adventure and a delicious meal.

COAST TO COAST

FLORIDA FUN!

You may be familiar with Florida, but did you know that the Sunshine State has 825 miles of glorious beaches along its 1,350 miles of coastline? Take a look at this map to get the lay of the land, learn the state's coastal nicknames, and find out what each stretch of shoreline has to offer. Before long, you'll be planning your own fun-filled trip to Florida's abundant sunshine!

NORTH

North Florida is known for its wide, pristine beaches on the Gulf and Atlantic, charming, historic towns, and vibrant, culture-filled cities.

CENTRAL

In Central Florida, go tubing on spring-fed rivers, ride towering roller coasters, visit horse farms, and taste craft brews along an ale trail.

SOUTH

In South Florida, enjoy world-class dining and shopping, explore the fascinating Everglades, and marvel at tropical fish on a snorkeling or diving trip.

FIRST COAST

The first permanent European settlement in Florida was in St. Augustine, where visitors can still stroll cobblestone streets. Explore Jacksonville's urban park system and relax on Amelia Island, known for its high-end resorts.

SPACE COAST

Only here, at the Kennedy Space Center, can you see historic spacecraft, meet astronauts, and watch rocket launches. Surf on big breaks in the Atlantic Ocean and stroll through the charming downtowns of Titusville and Melbourne.

TREASURE COAST

Named for the 1715 Spanish treasure fleet carrying gold that sank offshore, the Treasure Coast – Indian River, St. Lucie, and Martin counties – has shipwrecks to dive on, spring training games to cheer at, and big-game fish to catch.

GOLD COAST

In Miami, admire South Beach's Art Deco architecture. Fort Lauderdale is nicknamed "Venice of America" for its 165 miles of navigable waterways. In the Palm Beaches, play golf at the PGA National Resort & Spa.

SUNCOAST

With the most days of sunshine anywhere in Florida, this coast offers famous Pier 60 sunset celebrations on Clearwater Beach, an arts scene that includes the Dali Museum in St. Petersburg, and lively nightlife in Tampa's Ybor City.

CULTURAL COAST

This region's arts scene – see the Sarasota Ballet, Ringling Museum, and Venice Theatre – is world-class. Don't miss Siesta Key's top-rated beaches, Myakka River State Park (Florida's oldest), and shopping and dining on Venice Main Street.

PARADISE COAST

Stunning beaches plus championship golf, museums, and fabulous shopping make Naples and Marco Island a Shangri-la for vacationers. Dine on haute cuisine, and spot gators and dolphins on a boat tour.

SURF'S UP!

Florida's Atlantic coast is sprinkled with great surfing locations. In the northeast, Jacksonville Beach has a famous fishing pier and wide, flat sand in addition to plenty of rideable rollers.

‘YOGA ON WATER’

Stand-up paddleboarding can be done anywhere there's calm water, including off Crandon Park in Miami. Head out to see fascinating marine life and get a workout in the Florida sun.

ADRENALINE RUSH

An extreme sport, kiteboarding is thrilling to do and amazing to watch. Delray Beach is just one of many popular Florida locations where riders harness the wind to speed across the water.

JUST ADD WATER

ON THIS TROPICAL PENINSULA,
FUN ON THE WATER IS NEVER FAR AWAY

GO FISH!

From deep-sea fishing charters to dropping a line from a kayak, heading out onto a fishing pier, or just wading in, fishing opportunities abound, especially in the Keys. SOUTH

WHAT A THRILL!

Climb aboard an airboat and go zipping across the Everglades, the famed "River of Grass." Pause to spot gators, dolphins, and shorebirds. SOUTH

MAKE A SPLASH

Water, water everywhere, and only 24 hours in a day! Surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean and Gulf of Mexico, and laced with lakes and rivers, Florida is a watersports paradise. Slather on the sunscreen and try your hand at a new activity, whether that's surrounding yourself with nature as the current carries you slowly down a river or flying across the water at 50 mph on a jet ski. Many activities are perfect for families, including tandem or even triple parasailing.

MORE CAN'T-MISS EXPERIENCES

Snorkeling is a sport that opens up the underwater world. At Devil's Den in Williston, snorkel in a cave to see fish and 33-million-year-old fossil beds. NORTH

Relax and float down the scenic, spring-fed Rainbow River on a tube – it's the ultimate in low-energy sports. CENTRAL

If you feel the need for speed, jet skiing might just be your thing. Rent jet skis in Panama City Beach and go flying across the waters of the Gulf or Grand Lagoon. NORTH

Parasailing in Fort Walton Beach offers panoramic views of the Gulf and Choctawhatchee Bay. Launch from the back deck of a boat and let the sail carry you up into the sky. NORTH

CLEAR AS DAY

Florida's spring-fed rivers stay a refreshing 72 degrees year-round. Paddle a kayak or canoe in the crystal-clear waters of Three Sisters Springs.

CENTRAL

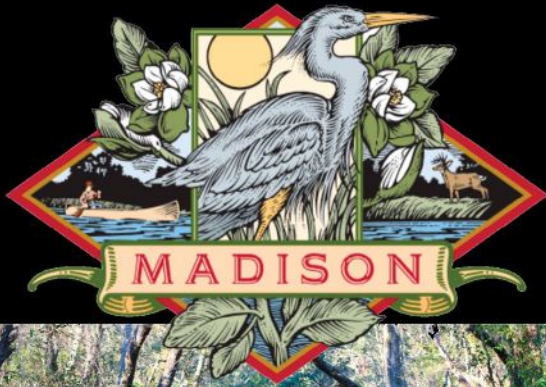

DAVID AND GOLIATH

The Treasure Coast is home to multiple shipwrecks, perfect for diving. Share your adventure with a goliath grouper and other fascinating marine life. CENTRAL

GO WILD!

MAGNIFICENT IN ITS VARIETY,
FLORIDA'S WILDLIFE IS EASY TO SPOT.

GENTLE GIANTS

Lumbering manatees live offshore much of the year, moving inland to spring-fed rivers such as the Crystal River during chilly months. CENTRAL

PLAYING ALONG

This bottlenose dolphin – among Florida's most iconic wild animals – is playing in a boat's wake in Charlotte Harbor. SOUTH

CREATURES GREAT AND SMALL

Florida is a great state for viewing wildlife.

To spot herons, egrets, and ibis, just look out your hotel window or along roadsides. Dolphins and manatees can be a little tougher to find, so head to an aquarium if you can't spy them in the Gulf or Atlantic. Join a beach turtle watch to see the adorable hatchlings. Explore a park with a lake or river to see gators safely from a distance.

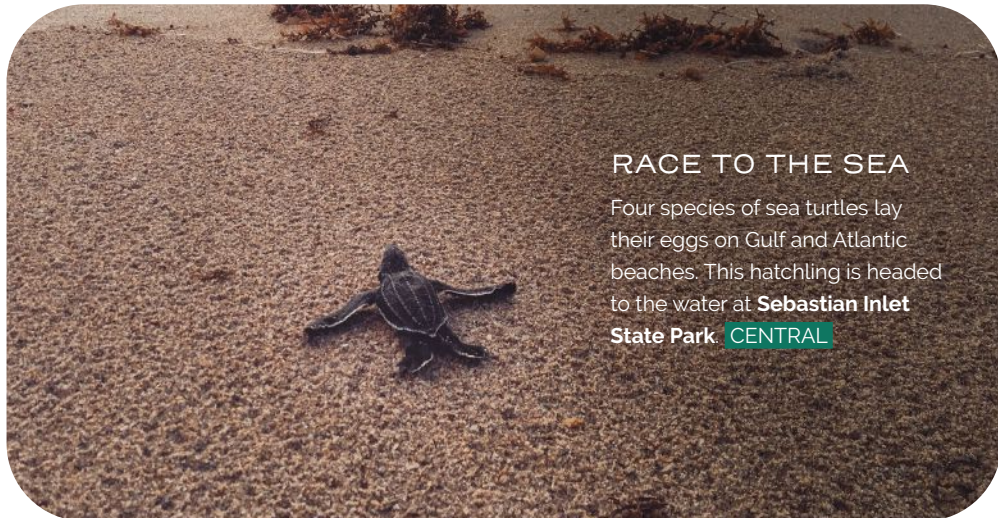

MORE CAN'T-MISS EXPERIENCES

See Florida black bears, red wolves, and whooping cranes and help feed giraffes at the Jacksonville Zoo. NORTH

Watch Hugh and Buffett, the resident manatees at Mote Aquarium in Sarasota, dine on romaine lettuce and other greens. SOUTH

In addition to seeing gators, visitors to Gatorland in Orlando, an Old Florida attraction, will also find crocodiles and tortoises. CENTRAL

Gulfarium in Fort Walton Beach has been entertaining families with dolphin shows and more since 1955. NORTH

RACE TO THE SEA

Four species of sea turtles lay their eggs on Gulf and Atlantic beaches. This hatchling is headed to the water at Sebastian Inlet State Park. CENTRAL

PRETTY IN PINK

Flamingoes in all their splendor can be seen in various locations across the state, including the aviary at Flamingo Gardens in Davie, 30 minutes north of Miami. SOUTH

MIRROR IMAGE

Roseate spoonbills – easily identified by the shape of their bill – and a reddish egret seem to admire their reflections at the Merritt Island National Wildlife Refuge. CENTRAL

HIT THE TRAIL

ON FOOT, BY BIKE, OR IN A BOAT,
EXPLORE PATHS TO NEW ADVENTURES

MADE IN THE SHADE

The Four Freedoms Trail in Madison County is ideal for biking, hiking, and horseback riding. Explore north-central Florida and end up at the Withlacoochee River, a designated paddling trail. NORTH

A PATH LESS TRAVELED

Florida is crisscrossed with trails on both land and water, guiding adventurers to learn about its unique ecosystems including dry prairies and oak hammocks, mangrove swamps and coastal tributaries. Climb out of the car and start exploring, following the path and listening to the breeze in the trees and the cries of red-shouldered hawks and osprey overhead.

Madison County (Colin Hackley), Great Calusa Blueway (Matador)

WATER WONDERLAND

The 190-mile Great Calusa Blueway paddling trail meanders through open Gulf waters, protected bays, and quiet mangrove creeks near Fort Myers. SOUTH

MORE CAN'T-MISS EXPERIENCES

Mountain biking might not be the first Florida sport that comes to mind, but aficionados will find challenging trails in Alafia River State Park. CENTRAL

In Blackwater River State Forest – Florida's largest – equestrian trails lead through woodlands and past lakes and streams. NORTH

The 46-mile Pinellas Trail is a bike-and-hike urban rail-trail that links parks and coastal areas in St. Petersburg and points north. CENTRAL

A work in progress, the 106-mile Florida Keys Overseas Heritage Trail will connect Key Largo to Key West, allowing cyclists and pedestrians to enjoy island hopping on a paved path separate from Highway 1. SOUTH

TUNNEL VISION

Mangroves grow in coastal waters, often meeting overhead to form tunnels. Follow the Turner River Canoe Trail through Big Cypress National Preserve. SOUTH

BUTTERFLY EFFECT

At the St. Marks National Wildlife Refuge, follow hiking trails through pine flatwoods and palm hammocks and along the coast to the St. Marks Lighthouse. NORTH

CANINE COMPANION

Leashed dogs are welcome on the Panama City Beach Conservation Park's 25 miles of trails, including boardwalks that lead through cypress domes. NORTH

SLEEP UNDER THE STARS AND ROUGH IT AS MUCH - OR AS LITTLE - AS YOU WANT

GLAMPING

Get close to nature without sacrificing comfort in a luxury teepee at Westgate River Ranch Resort in Polk County. CENTRAL

HOME ON THE GO

Stay overnight in Highlands Hammock State Park near Sebring and other scenic spots in your own RV or a rented one. CENTRAL

SURROUNDED BY NATURE

There's nothing quite like setting up camp and spending the night immersed in the Florida outdoors. After daytime visitors have packed it in, experience the changing colors of sunset as nature settles in for the night. On the beach, lie back and marvel at the carpet of stars. Wake at first light, listen to birds greet the rising sun, and get ready to conquer the new day.

MORE CAN'T-MISS EXPERIENCES

With 21 campgrounds scattered across its 567,000 acres, Apalachicola National Forest offers plenty of options for serious adventurers to find primitive tent camping spots. NORTH

Visitors who camp at Disney's Fort Wilderness Resort & Campground can take a water taxi or ferry to Magic Kingdom park. CENTRAL

Stay in a state park cabin, and you won't have to sleep on the ground. Check out the well-appointed cabins in Grayton Beach State Park in Santa Rosa Beach. NORTH

Steer your RV south to the Keys – a variety of full-facility campgrounds await in this string of alluring islands starting with Key Largo. SOUTH

WATERFRONT PROPERTY

Enjoy a sunrise or sunset paddle and sleep by the bay at Fort De Soto Park's expansive campground, south of St. Petersburg. CENTRAL

FUN AND GAMES

Stay in a deluxe tent cabin in Topsail Hill Preserve State Park in Santa Rosa Beach. NORTH

A1A Ocean Islands Trail

JOURNEY ALONG FLORIDA'S SCENIC HIGHWAYS

Eager to find new Florida adventures but not sure where to start? These byways offer ready-made routes perfect for discovering the state's famous and off-the-beaten-path attractions, experiences, and unique beauty.

Now in its 25th year, the Florida Scenic Highways Program showcases the outstanding cultural, historic, and natural resources found along the state's highway system. Check out these five exciting options, then venture beyond to explore all 27 scenic byways.

- 1 Pensacola Scenic Bluffs Highway: In Northwest Florida, enjoy panoramic views of Escambia Bay from atop giant bluffs, which are among the highest points along Florida's entire coastline.
- 2 A1A Ocean Islands Trail: Drive past sand dunes and barrier islands on iconic A1A along the state's north Atlantic coast, take a ferry to the historic commercial fishing village of Mayport on the St. Johns River, and play on Jacksonville's amenity-filled beaches.
- 3 Old Florida Heritage Highway: Follow this route to inland treasures including the home of author Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, the historic community of Micanopy, and the bison herds in Paynes Prairie Preserve State Park.
- 4 Tamiami Trail: Windows to the Gulf Waters Scenic Highway: Travel back into Florida's past along this section of the Tamiami Trail – the first paved road between Tampa and Miami (hence the name) – stopping to enjoy culture in Sarasota and Venice and great beaches in Bradenton and Siesta Key.
- 5 Florida Keys Scenic Highway: The state's only All-American Road stretches 110 miles, linking offbeat communities sprinkled across 43 keys surrounded by turquoise water and ending at the southernmost point in the U.S., colorful Key West.

FLORIDA Toll Road Info

Planning a Florida road trip? Keep in mind that some toll roads no longer accept cash. To pay the tolls, you can either purchase a SunPass (available at SunPass.com and at many retailers, including Publix, CVS, and Walgreens) or pay via toll-by-plate.

☆ CERTIFIED Visitor Information Centers

At Official Florida Welcome Centers, visitors have access to Certified Information Specialists, maps, brochures, and a variety of amenities. In addition, VISIT FLORIDA also offers more than 50 Certified Visitor Information Centers around the state

They're indicated on the map with a purple star icon (☆). These facilities must meet certain requirements, such as having a convenient location, providing accessible parking and restrooms, and operating at least five days a week year-round.

CENTRAL FLORIDA

1 ZIP ALONG

Get your heart pumping while flying along ziplines and crossing rope bridges high above a former limestone quarry at Canyons Zip Line and Adventure Park in Ocala.

MAGICAL MOMENTS

At Walt Disney World® Resort in Orlando, discover the excitement of Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Disney's Hollywood Studios, and Disney's Animal Kingdom.

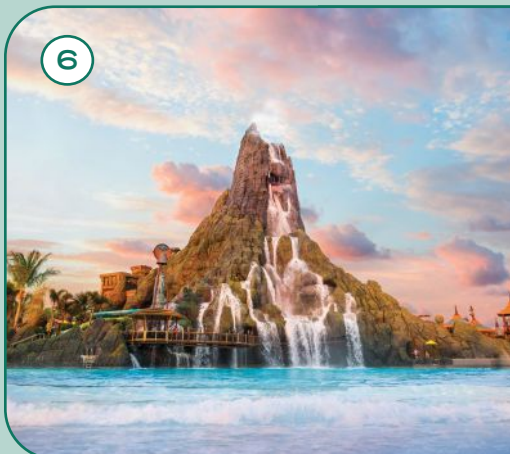

FAMILY FUN

With more than 50 rides, attractions, and shows, LEGOLAND Florida Resort in Winter Haven draws families to its creative play areas and building zones as well as its water park.

WATER WONDERLAND

At Aquatica, SeaWorld's water park in Orlando, thrill to waterslides or ride a relaxing river, and peer into a fish grotto as you float or swim by.

TROPICAL RETREAT

Tucked inside the volcano at Universal's Volcano Bay in Orlando is the tallest body slide in the U.S., at 125 feet tall (and it's just one of the park's 20 slides). Bob in the wave pool, float down the lazy river, and relax in a shady cabana.

HIT THE ROAD!

Drive along the Indian River Lagoon National Scenic Byway, a network of roadways with expansive views of the lagoon and the Atlantic Ocean.

MUST STOPS

Cruise slowly along Black Point Wildlife Drive in the wildlife refuge and keep your eyes peeled for bobcats, otters, and manatees.

✦ Kennedy Space Center

See the Space Shuttle Atlantis up close, touch a moon rock, and try your hand on an astronaut training simulator. Learn how the team at Mission Control helped put a man on the moon.

✦ Cocoa Beach

Relax on long Atlantic beaches, enjoy views from the pier, and go surfing – or just look the part in clothes from Ron Jon Surf Shop (the world's largest).

✦ Melbourne

Challenge the family to go-kart races, explore scenic Melbourne Harbor, and feed giraffes at the Brevard Zoo. In the Eau Gallie Arts District, wander museums, historic churches, and the bandshell.

✦ Sebastian Inlet State Park

Watch surfers tackle some of the best waves on the East Coast at this park and keep an eye out for dolphins and manatees as you paddle in the mangrove-lined Indian River Lagoon.

Peace River, Arcadia

SOUTH FLORIDA

1 EYE OPENING

Set on the Gulf in southwest Florida, Naples offers great natural beauty, including spectacular sunsets and gentle surf perfect for pint-size snorkelers.

HOME

In Cape Romano, go for a dolphin-watching or shelling boat tour, keep an eye out for pelicans and other shorebirds, and marvel at these abandoned structures, originally a sustainable home and now an artificial reef full of marine life.

ON!

With its treasure trove of natural coral as well as artificial reefs, Key Largo is a prime fishing destination. Fish for marlin, grouper, snapper, and more in turquoise water.

FROM ON HIGH

Bradenton Beach

HIT THE ROAD!

Cruise along the Bradenton Beach Scenic Byway and enjoy the leisurely pace, small shops, and sandy charm of Old Florida found on Anna Maria Island, a barrier island in the Gulf.

MUST STOPS

Bradenton Beach

Take a paddleboard or beach catamaran out for a spin or leave the work to someone else on a relaxing sunset sail in the Gulf.

Cortez

Hop across the small drawbridge to wander around Cortez, a historic fishing village, and taste fresh local seafood at dockside restaurants. Tiny cottages and the Florida Maritime Museum stand witness to its heritage.

Bridge Street

Check out the locally owned shops and restaurants on this lively street, catch a boat tour from the pier, and rent a Segway to tour the area. Watch boat traffic cruise by while you try your luck fishing.

Leffis Key Preserve

Stroll the footpaths and boardwalk around the 26-foot hill planted with a mangrove forest and other native foliage, then pause to take in great views of Sarasota Bay.

Coquina Beach

Walk or jog along wide paved paths, enjoy a picnic in the shade of towering Australian pines, and grab an ice cream cone after a relaxing swim in the Gulf.

DID YOU KNOW?

FASCINATING FLORIDA FUN FACTS

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Spanish explorer Juan Ponce de Leon gave Florida its name in a tribute to Spain's Easter celebration known as "Pascua Florida," or Festival of Flowers.

74
MILLION

Approximate number of citrus trees in Florida.

WEIRD BUT TRUE

Manatees have toenails.

700

The number of freshwater springs in the state, the largest collection anywhere on Earth.

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS

Florida's Everglades is the only place in the world where alligators and crocodiles are found together in the wild.

“CREATURE FROM THE BLACK LAGOON”

Scenes from this 1954 classic monster movie were filmed at Wakulla Springs, Florida. (Today, the underwater filming area is open to visitors.)

MORE THAN JUST ORANGES

Key Lime pie is the official state pie. For a twist, try frozen chocolate-covered Key Lime pie on a stick!

HEAD SHAKING

Marlins Park in Miami has its very own bobblehead museum, with over 600 bobbleheads of baseball players and mascots.

150 FT

The height of Florida's tallest launch coaster, Tigris at Busch Gardens.

300

Average annual days of sunshine in Florida.

1,000+
